Criminal No: 5:12cr00026

JOINT DISCOVERY AND INSPECTION ORDER

THIS DAY came the United States of America, by its Attorney, and the Defendants, by counsel, and moved the Court for entry of an Order governing the provisions of discovery by the respective parties in this case, pursuant to Rules 16 and 12.1, 12.2, 12.3 and 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. Whereupon, the Attorney for the United States and counsel for the Defendant moved the Court to approve and order the following schedule of discovery and inspection in this case, which said Motion the Court granted; it is therefore

ADJUDGED and ORDERED that the United States of America permit the defendant to inspect, copy and/or photograph:

(1) any relevant written or recorded statements made by the defendant, or copies thereof, within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government; the substance of any oral statement which the government intends to offer in evidence at the trial by the defendant whether before or after arrest in response to interrogation by any person then known to the defendant to be a government agent; and recorded testimony of the defendant before a grand jury which relates to the offense charged. If the defendant is a corporation, partnership, association or labor union, the court grants the defendant discovery of relevant recorded testimony of any witness before a grand jury who (a) was, at the time of that testimony, so situated as an officer or employee as to have been able legally to bind the defendant in respect to conduct constituting the offense, or (b) was, at the time of the offense, personally involved in the alleged conduct constituting the offense and so situated as an officer or employee as to have been able legally to bind the defendant in respect to that alleged conduct in which the witness was involved.

(2) Such copy of the defendant's prior criminal record, if any, as is within the possession, custody, or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government.

(3) Books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, or copies or portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody or control of the government, and which are material to the preparation of the defendant's defense or are intended for use by the government as evidence in chief at the trial, or were obtained from or belong to the defendant.

(4) Any results or reports of physical or mental examinations, and of scientific tests or experiments, or copies thereof, which are within the possession, custody, or control of the government, the existence of which is known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known, to the attorney for the government, and which are material to the preparation of the defense or are intended for use by the government as evidence in chief at the trial.

(5) Written summary of testimony that the government intends to use under Rules 702, 703 or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence during its case-in-chief, as required by Rule 16(a)(1)(E) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(6) Any statements of a witness that is in the possession of the government and which relates to the subject matter of the witness's testimony, pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 26.2(a) and Title 18, United States Code, Section 3500.

(7) In connection with the disclosure or any materials referenced in the above paragraphs and in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3509(m), any property or material that constitutes child pornography (as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256) shall remain in the care, custody, and control of the Government. The Government will make such materials reasonably available for inspection, viewing, and examination at a Government facility by the defendant, his attorney, and, if applicable, any individual the defendant may seek to qualify to furnish expert testimony at trial. Any such person reviewing the material on behalf of the defendant shall not make, nor permit to be made, any copies of the child pornography contraband and shall not remove any contraband images from the Government facility.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States provide to the Defendant any evidence of an exculpatory nature, as defined in Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1973), and those cases interpreting that opinion.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States provide to the Defendant any notice of any evidence that it intends to introduce pursuant to Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant permit the attorney for the United States to inspect, copy and/or photograph:

(1) any books, papers, documents, photographs, tangible objects, or copies or portions thereof, which are within the possession, custody, or control of the defendant and which the defendant intends to introduce as evidence in chief at the trial.

(2) any results or reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection with the particular case, or copies thereof, within the possession, or control of the defendant, and which the defendant intends to introduce as evidence in chief at the trial or which was prepared by a witness whom the defendant intends to call at the trial when the results or reports relate to that witness' testimony.

(3) Written summary of testimony that the defendant intends to use under Rules 702, 703 or 705 of the Federal Rules of Evidence during its case-in-chief, as required by Rule 16(b)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(4) Any statements of a witness that is in the possession of the defendant and which relates to the subject matter of the witness's testimony, pursuant to F.R.Cr.P. 26.2(a).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the accused disclose whether he intends to introduce evidence to establish an alibi, and if so, that within the time limits set forth in F.R.Cr.P 12.1(a), the defendant state the specific place or places at which he claims to have been at the time of the alleged offense and the names and addresses of the witnesses upon whom the defendant intends to rely to establish such alibi.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to F.R.Crim.P. 12.2, that, if the defendant intends to rely upon a defense of insanity or to introduce expert testimony relating to a mental disease or defect or any other mental condition of the defendant bearing upon the issue of guilt, the defendant shall notify the government in writing of such intention and file a copy of such notice with the clerk.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to F.R.Crim.P. 12.3, that, if the defendant intends to claim a defense of actual or believed exercise of public authority on behalf of a law enforcement of Federal intelligence agency at the time of the alleged offense, the defendant shall serve upon the attorney for the Government a written notice of such intention, and that the parties otherwise comply with F.R.Crim.P. 12.3.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, except for good cause shown, the parties provide the above-ordered discovery and inspection not later than 14 days before trial at the office of the United States Attorney or at such other place as the parties shall mutually agree.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, pursuant to Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 6(e), 16, and 26.2, 26 U.S.C. §§ 6103(h)(4)(D) and (i)(4)(A), and the authority of this Court to administer its proceedings, and on motion of the United States, it is ORDERED that the United States is permitted to disclose to counsel for the defense as part of voluntary discovery, grand jury transcripts, tax information, and other investigative materials.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States may use this material for the prosecution of the case and may make such further disclosures as may be necessary for, and for the sole purpose of, prosecuting this case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for the defense and the individual defendant(s) may use this material solely for the defense of the case, may not photocopy any materials designated in writing by the United States except as needed for defense of the case (any photocopy is governed by this order as if it was an original), may not remove any materials designated in writing by the United States from the office of defense counsel unless kept in the personal possession of defense counsel at all times, may not disclose any materials designated in writing by the United States to any person other than counsel and staff directly assisting in the defense of the instant case, and may not disclose or discuss any materials designated in writing by the United States with any person except in the presence of defense counsel and as necessary to the preparation of the defense, or as permitted by further order of the court. Unauthorized disclosure of grand jury, tax return, or investigative materials is a violation of federal law and violation of this Order may be deemed a contempt of court pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 401. Child pornography evidence contains the further restrictions that are set forth above.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that all parties and counsel become familiar with and comply with the privacy protections accorded to minors pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3509(d).

If the defendant does not wish to receive the above described materials, it is ordered and directed:

(1) that the Court and the United States Attorney's office be so advised in writing upon receipt of this order; and

(2) that the defendant and/or defendant's counsel not examine or read any materials covered by this order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if, prior to or during trial, a party discovers additional evidence or material previously requested or ordered, which is subject to discovery or inspection under the Rules of Criminal Procedure, such party shall promptly notify the other party, or that other party's attorney, or the court of the existence of the additional evidence or material.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court shall certify copies of this order to each attorney who becomes counsel in this case at anytime and to any party acting pro se. However, if an Indictment in this case is under seal, the Clerk should delay sending a copy of this Order to defense counsel until the unsealing of the Indictment.
